RUBE KISSINGER
ARRIVES TODAY

Hamilton, Ed and James
Wahled Released—Cracker
Squad Now Numbers 23
Men.

Manager Smith received a wire from Rube Kissinger, the veteran pitcher with Memphis, that he had been released from the team, and was coming to Atlanta today. Kissinger's arrival will make the Cracker's pitching staff a very strong one, as he is a right-handed pitcher, and is a former major league pitcher.

LOUISVILLE PITCHER KIN—TO AN ATLANTA WOMAN
Jabe Northrop, the Louisville writer, who twirled the last four innings of the game against the Crackers Monday afternoon, is related to an Atlanta woman.

He is first cousin of Mrs. Billy Wall, wife of the superintendent of the dining car service of the Southeastern railway. In Atlanta, Mr. and Mrs. Wall are entertaining Mr.
Northrop while he is in Atlanta.

By Dick Jewison.
Although they were about two to one, the Crackers defeated the Louiville Colonels in the first exhibition game of the season here yesterday.
The Crackers scored their four run victory in the fourth inning, and the Colonels were unable to score again.

The Crackers got nine bingles, but in the main they were scattered through the nine innings, and did not score again.

Osborn Hit Hard.
Osborn, the Colonels' outfielder, hit the Crackers with a perfect day in the first four innings. He hit four times in the first four innings, and scored three runs.

JAY GOULD LEADS COVEY AT RACQUETS

American Amateur Wins Four Straight Sets From English Professional Champ.

Philadelphia, March 16.—Jay Gould, American amateur champion, today won all four sets in the first set of his match with George P. Covey, the English professional, and took the championship at racquet tennis. Gould won twenty-four games to Covey's eight.

The English champion failed to win a single game in the first set, although he scored the first point made, and four of the six games went to Gould. Gould won the third and fourth sets, in both of which he won by a score of 12-0. Gould won the fifth set, in which he won by a score of 12-0.

DICK JEMISONBOYS' HIGH WINS
PREP BASKETBALL

Scored Win Over Donald Fraser for the City Title.
The Final Score Was 38
to 21.

Playing jam-up ball all the way, Boys' High not only won out over Donald Fraser yesterday afternoon, but also won the city title for the season of 1914. The game, which was played on the foot court in the Crystal Palace, was featured by the extreme playfulness with which the two teams played. Some very sensational shots were made by Donald Fraser, the first point of which was a lay-up shot. Fraser then started to scoring and ran the game. The final score was 38 to 21.
